The Tabernacle

This portable temple was built in the wilderness by the Israelites circa 1450 BC after they were freed from Egyptian slavery. The Tabernacle was the first temple dedicated to God and the first resting place of the Ark of the Covenant. It served as a place of worship and sacrifices during the Israelites' 40 years in the desert while conquering the land of Canaan.

EX. 20:24: "An altar of earth...

peace offerings, your sheep

The Old Testament often records the building of an altar (see Gen 8:20; 13:18). These were likely earthen altars, or altars of clay and stone. The easiest altar to build, these were ideal for worshipers who did not plan to stay in an area for long.

An Altar of Earth

In Exodus 20:24, Yahweh commands Moses to build an altar of earth or clay. This may refer to blocks of sod or sun-fired mudbrick (Isa 65:3). However, many altars of earth likely included stones, just as many altars of unworked stone also included clay.
